

1 committee. If a man does not have an important committee
2 assignment, he is not a full legislator. He does not 3 have full legislative power.

4 Every member is entitled to respect, and his 5 constituents are entitled to respect in the General Assembly.
6 The staffing of the committee could be simplified. One of 7 the problems of the state legislature is the provision
8 of competent, full-time, well-paid staffs. This could be 9 done with a simplified committee structure.
